PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GUTIÉRREZ. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably absent in the House chamber for votes on Monday, November 14, 2016. I would like the record to show that, had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall votes 575 and 576.

PERMISSION TO DISPENSE WITH MORNING-HOUR DEBATE ON TOMORROW

Mr. COLLINS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the order of the House of January 5, 2016, regarding morning-hour debate not apply tomorrow.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Georgia?

There was no objection.

HONORING MITCHELL KAPLAN

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise tonight in recognition of Mitchell Kaplan, a gentleman who has contributed so much to our south Florida community.

Born in Miami, Mitch began his career as a high school English teacher. He went on to open Books & Books, an extraordinary bookstore located in my congressional district that has now expanded throughout south Florida and even the Cayman Islands.

As time passed, Mitch organized many community events and local book fairs, growing larger and larger by the year.

Miami Dade College President Eduardo Padron worked with Mitch to create the Miami Book Fair International, a world-renowned book fair that is taking place right now in my congressional district in downtown Miami.

Mr. Speaker, Mitch Kaplan is an inspiration to Floridians and for people across the Nation.

Thank you, Mitch, for your tireless work and dedication to all of us book lovers everywhere.

MANY AMERICANS ARE UNDER CLOUD OF FEAR AND ANXIETY

(Mr. TAKANO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TAKANO. Mr. Speaker, many Americans woke up today and after the elections under a cloud of fear and anxiety. There are children who, for perhaps the first time in their lives, are wondering if this country welcomes and respects them.

I rise today to remind my colleagues, the incoming administration, and the American people that millions of our veterans and servicemembers have made incredible sacrifices in defense of a single powerful idea: no matter where you come from, what you believe, or who you love, you deserve to be treated with dignity and respect.

On Veterans Day, we expressed our enduring gratitude to those men and women—Latinos and Muslims, Christians and Jews, African Americans and all others—who put on the uniform to defend that idea. But our words are not enough. We must honor their service by protecting the rights and freedoms of every American, and we must keep our pledge to promote liberty and justice for all.

Thank you again to all our veterans. We will honor your service.

VETERANS DAY 2016

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, this past weekend our Nation celebrated Veterans Day, a day to recognize and thank those who selflessly serve in the face of danger to protect our Nation and our way of life. Throughout history, beginning with the Revolutionary War, our veterans have earned and protected the freedom which we often take for granted.

Originally established as Armistice Day in 1919, November 11 was renamed Veterans Day in 1954 in order to include the many Americans who honorably served during World War II and in Korea.

Today, we continue that tradition and honor the dedication, the service, and the sacrifices that our veterans made in World War I, World War II, Korea, Vietnam, and, more recently, in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Our soldiers, sailors, marines, airmen, and Coast Guard will continue this legacy of service to protect our country, and they deserve our utmost respect.

God bless our veterans, and thank you for your service.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF DEPUTY JACK HOPKINS

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Mr. Speaker, as the House reconvenes and gets back to business, we are reminded that public safety is a 24-hour business.

I rise tonight, sadly, in memoriam of Deputy Jack Hopkins of Modoc County
